Foundation
MADISON PUBLIC LIBRARY

LUNCH FOR LIBRARIES

Table Captain Information

- What: Madison Public Library Foundation's Lunch for Libraries 2023 luncheon fundraiser for the Wisconsin Book Festival and youth literacy programs
- Who: Featuring New York Times best-selling author Emily St. John Mandel, talking about her book, Sea of Tranquility
- When: Monday, April 17, 2023
- Where: Monona Terrace

As you consider becoming a Table Captain for Madison Public Library Foundation's 12th annual Lunch for Libraries, review the outline below, which defines a Table Captain's role.

Invite guests to fill a table of eight to ten.

- Reserve your table by March 24, 2023, or as soon as possible.
- Recruit your guests by reaching out to friends or coworkers, and/or talk up the event to a book group. The foundation office will provide printed postcards or email invites at your request to send your guests.
- Individual Lunch for Libraries tickets will go on sale February 6, 2023.Your guests can purchase their tickets from the event page on our website. When they check out, your guests can enter your name in the table captain field.
- Single tickets are $125.00 each and come with a signed paperback copy of Sea of Tranquility and lunch provided by Monona catering.

To reserve your table, email the Katy Kaufman at kkaufman@mplfoundation.org.

If you have questions, call Katy Kaufman at 608-266-6562.

About the author: Emily St. John Mandel's Sea of Tranquility is a novel of art, time, love, and plague that takes the reader from Vancouver Island in 1912 to a dark colony on the moon 500 years later, unfurling a story of humanity across centuries and space. Her five previous novels include The Glass Hotel and Station Eleven, which is the basis for the HBO Max series by the same name.